

When You Thought I Wasn't Looking

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you smile at me and I knew that you cared, and I immediately wanted to try to please you.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you hugging a girl from our team who was left out and I learned that it was good to be kind to others.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw your delight when we did well and I learned that the little things can be the special things in life.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you lend money to a teammate in need and I learned that we all have to help take care of each other.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you take care of our program and every family in it, and I learned we have to cherish the support we are given.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw how you handled your responsibilities, even when you didn't feel good, and I learned that I would have to be responsible when I grow up.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw tears come from your eyes, and I learned that sometimes things hurt, but it's all right to cry.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw you congratulate the team who beat us at the competition and I realized winning isn't the most important thing.

When you thought I wasn't looking I saw that you cared, and I wanted to be everything that I could be.

When you thought I wasn't looking I learned most of life's lessons that I need to know to be a good and productive person when I grow up.

I want you to say "Thanks for all the things I saw when you thought I wasn't looking."

Just For Kix

Coaches are the lifeblood of any team. You do so much for others and you may think that no one notices, but the impression and life long impact you have on your dancers is astounding. What you give them is invaluable and they bring that with them throughout their life journey.

You DO influence the life of a child.

Thank you for the lives you will touch this season... and beyond.

So, when you think no one is looking, they really are. I offer you this inspiration as we look forward to another memorable CAMP season!
